NIRI CENTRAL OHIO JANUARY LUNCHEON
“2011 Economic Outlook”

Bryan Jordan
Chief Economist, Nationwide

- When: Tuesday, January 11, noon luncheon; reception at 11:30 a.m.
- Where: Capital Club
The Huntington Building
41 S. High St. 7th Floor
Columbus 43215
- What: Bryan Jordan, Nationwide's chief economist, will offer insights into what 2011 holds for the global economy impacting the outlook for our companies and clients.

Bryan Jordan, CFA is the Chief Economist and Director of Financial Markets Analysis at Nationwide Investments. He produces Nationwide's economic and interest rate forecast and is a member of the firm's Enterprise Portfolio Management team. Bryan currently authors a weekly economic commentary, a monthly economic chartbook, and a quarterly economic newsletter.

Prior to joining Nationwide in February 2005, Bryan served as an economist at Banc One Investment Advisors, where he was the honored recipient of the Henry J. Reese Memorial Award in 2001. He has been quoted in several media outlets, including The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, Investor's Business Daily, Reuters, The Dow Jones Newswire, and The Associated Press, and his research has appeared in Barron's and Blue Chip Financial Forecasts. He holds degrees in Economics and Political Science from Miami University and has earned the Chartered Financial Analyst designation. Bryan currently serves as the Chairman of the Ohio Council of Economic Advisors, the National Association for Business Economics, the Bloomberg monthly economic forecasting panel, and Mensa.
